Introduction

Tbilisi Transfer ("we", "us" or "our") may use cookies, web beacons, tracking pixels and similar technologies when you visit our website <https://www.tbilisi-transfer.com>, including any related mobile version or online page connected with the Site. These technologies help us operate the Site, improve user experience, understand how visitors use our pages and make the booking process more convenient.

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time. Changes become effective when the updated version is posted on the Site. By continuing to use the Site after updates are published, you accept the revised Cookie Policy.

Use of cookies

A cookie is a small file stored on your device by your browser. Cookies allow the Site to remember certain information about your visit and help the website function correctly.

We may use cookies to:

- display website content correctly;
- remember language or browsing preferences;
- help users submit booking and contact forms;
- understand which pages are visited and how the Site is used;
- improve website performance, navigation and usability;
- support security, spam protection and stable operation of the Site.

Types of cookies we may use

Cookie type	Purpose
Essential cookies	Required for basic website functions, page display, forms and security.
Preference cookies	Help remember user choices such as language or previously selected settings.
Analytics cookies	Help us understand how visitors reach the Site, which pages are viewed and which features can be improved.
Marketing or tracking technologies	May help measure advertising performance or improve relevance of online promotion, where such tools are used.

Analytics cookies

Analytics cookies monitor how users reach the Site and how they interact with pages once they arrive. This information helps us understand which parts of the Site work well and which parts should be improved. Analytics data is usually aggregated and does not directly identify the visitor.

Other tracking technologies

In addition to cookies, the Site may use web beacons, pixel tags or similar technologies. These tools may collect limited technical information, such as cookie identifiers, time and date of page views, viewed pages and related statistical data. You can limit their use by managing cookies in your browser or device settings.

Control of cookies

Most browsers accept cookies by default. You can remove, block or restrict cookies through your browser or device settings. Please note that disabling cookies may affect the availability and functionality of the Site, including booking forms or convenience features.

You can usually manage cookies in the settings of browsers such as Google Chrome, Apple Safari, Mozilla Firefox, Microsoft Edge, Opera and mobile browsers on Android or iOS devices. You may also be able to opt out of some third-party advertising or analytics cookies through tools provided by those third-party services.

Privacy Policy

For more information about how we collect, use and protect personal data, please refer to our Privacy Policy on www.tbilisi-transfer.com. This Cookie Policy is part of and should be read together with our Privacy Policy.
